

Campbell County Public Library

Kentucky/Conference Room Reservation Form

Created 6 Jul 2015

Revised 20 Jan 2016

Reviewed 15 Nov 2017

Purpose and Availability

The Library's Kentucky Room and Conference Rooms are intended primarily for use by small groups or individuals. All groups and individuals reserving this room are expected to read and follow this policy. All meetings must be open to the public.

Organizations may not use Library facilities for purely social functions, fundraising or commercial enterprises. No organization's use of the room may interfere with or disturb the Library's regular operations. An organization's use of the facilities does not imply the Library's endorsement. The Library reserves the right to deny the use of Library facilities. The Library accepts no liability or responsibility for any damage to persons or property resulting from use of Library facilities. The Library is a limited public forum and, as such, may deny the use of its facilities in accordance with its policies.

Guidelines for Public Use

- Application for use of Library facilities must be completed each time either of these rooms is requested.
- The application form must be completed and returned to the Library prior to the scheduled meeting.
- The application must be approved by the Library Director (or designee) prior to the scheduled meeting.
- All room use must be within regular operating hours but must end a minimum of fifteen minutes prior to closing.
- Reservations will be taken on a first-come, first-served basis. Reservations may be made up to three months in advance. A maximum of three meetings at a time may be scheduled.
- The Library shall be notified 48 hours in advance in case of cancellations or changes.
- Requests for audiovisual equipment must be made with the application.
- When using the Library's facilities, admission fees may not be charged nor may a donation be solicited. Any funds collected or exchanged within the Kentucky Room or Conference Room must not benefit a particular person but be used for charitable purposes or for the maintenance of a non-profit organization.
- No smoking or alcoholic beverages are permitted.
- Only light refreshments are permitted (i.e., small snack bag). Drinks should be in closed containers.
- If furnishings of the Kentucky Room or Conference Room are rearranged, they shall be returned to previous arrangement.
- The person completing application for use of Library facilities is responsible for any damages to Library property. Damages should be reported to Library personnel as soon as possible.
- Accidents shall be reported immediately to Library personnel.
- Failure to adhere to regulations may result in denial of future use of Library facilities.
- The Library will not be responsible for storage of any materials or equipment. Short term exceptions may be made upon request.
- Except as a designation of location, the name of the Library may not be used in any publicity.
- All rules for appropriate behavior in the Library must be observed while using these rooms.
- The Library reserves the right to cancel a meeting at any time.

Review or Appeal Procedure

Exceptions to this policy may be made at the discretion of the Library Director or his/her designee. Individuals or groups who are denied use of a study room may appeal to the Director. Such appeal shall be filed in writing with the Director within 10 days of rejection of the application.
