Board of Trustees Meeting

The Campbell County Public Library's Board of Trustees meets at 5:30 pm on the third Wednesday each month. All board meetings are open to the public. Next meeting dates and locations are:

- July 21 at Cold Spring
- Aug. 18 at Newport
- Sept. 15 at Fort Thomas
- Oct. 20 at Alexandria

We suggest

STAFF RECOMMENDATIONS: OUR STAFF'S QUINTESSENTIAL SUMMER ROAD TRIP MOVIES!

Almost Famous

It's a classic movie about a 15-year-old kid with a passion for music who gets the dream of a lifetime writing for Rolling Stone about a new band. Set in the 1970s, it follows the band as they tour on the road.

— Brittany Parr, children's services programmer, Cold Spring Branch

The Muppet Movie

Kermit and Fozzie travel to Hollywood, crossing paths with all the classic Muppets from Miss Piggy to Gonzo; plus, Kermit has to outrun the evil Doc Hopper who wants Kermit to be the face of his French fried frog legs restaurant. It's a silly musical that's fun for everyone!

— Emily Nestheide, library page, Cold Spring Branch

Tommy Boy

It stars Chris Farley and David Spade as they go on a quest to save Tommy's family's auto part business. Battling his stepmom's desire to close the business and cash out on the benefits, Tommy does his best (sorta) but complete mayhem ensues.

— Danielle Turner, adult/teen services programmer, Cold Spring Branch

Thelma and Louise

The friendship between the two women is loving and inspiring, despite the tragic parts of the story. Plus, you get to see beautiful desert scenery.

— Lisa Kuhn, patron services assistant, Newport Branch

Check Out the Library's New Prize Machines!

Visiting the library just got a little more rewarding. You may have noticed a new addition to the Cold Spring, Carrico/Fort Thomas and Newport branches: prize machines! No change required. Just drop a token – given to children at checkout – into the slot for a surprise item, which may include jokes, temporary tattoos, stickers and fun facts. The prize machines are fun for kids of all ages.

Book Care Packages

Bring the library home via our Book Care Package service for children and teens of all ages. Simply make a request and the library will pull up to 10 books and audio materials that fit your interests. This is a great way to make some progress on your Summer Reading logs! Request a Book Care Package at www.cc-pl.org/book-care-packages.

Meet Everage King, continued from the cover

Showcasing 13 local artists who work in a range of styles and mediums, Art After Hours will be held Friday, July 30 from 7-9 pm at the Carrico/Fort Thomas Branch.

Each artist will be available to discuss their work with items available to purchase. Plus, patrons can relax to music by blues musician Ricky Nye; enjoy floral arrangements from Fort Thomas Florist & Greenhouses; and revel in fried goodness served up by Moonrise Doughnuts.

One artist who will be in attendance is Everage King, a retired art teacher and former preparator at the Cincinnati Art Museum. Primarily a painter, King's love of art traces back to his childhood, where he would draw comics and cartoons like Superman.

After high school, he served two years in the U.S. Army; and in 1979 earned a bachelor's in Fine Arts in Education at the University of Cincinnati. Nearly 20 years of teaching followed, along with 15 years at CAM until his 2014 retirement from the latter.

"Mostly I spend my days thinking of what to paint next," King said of his life post-retirement.

Take a look at King's work, which he describes as impressionist, and you might notice cityscapes home to Greater Cincinnati. Currently living in the Queen City, he says the environment he's in informs his work. In Dayton, for example, he created more culturally-focused work on subjects like heroes and sports figures.

"In Cincinnati what I'm finding is landscapes," King said. "Things that have to do with architecture catch my eye. I deal with shapes and forms and the interrelationships of colors."

King plans to bring several prints to Art After Hours, some of which he described: one depicts a marshy area in Anderson Township lush with greenery (pictured on right); another is a blue-hued cityscape in which a hazy Cincinnati skyline backdrops building rooftops (pictured above); a single flower rises out of dead growth in yet another. Along with other prints, originals will also be available.

"It's always exciting to hear people express the effect that my work has on them," said King, who has shown at the event twice before. "The feedback helps me understand where my work is going and how effective it is. I really want to do work that says something – not just a pretty picture but makes a statement that people can understand and receive."

Art After Hours is free and open to the public; the Carrico/Fort Thomas Branch will close at 5 pm to set up for the event. Patrons can expect a bit of everything, from pottery to woodcarving to photography. For more information, visit www.cc-pl.org.
