We suggest

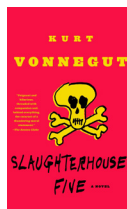

STAFF RECOMMENDATIONS: BOOKS WE'RE THANKFUL FOR

Illusions: The Adventures of a Reluctant Messiah* by Richard Bach

Fans of Jonathan Livingston Seagull might recognize this title. It's the wonderful story of a messiah turned barnstorming airplane pilot who takes on a protégé. So many quotes from this book have guided my life.

— JC Morgan, library director

Slaughterhouse-Five* by Kurt Vonnegut

Vonnegut's classic book was there for me at the most difficult time in my life. I picked it up the day after my beloved grandfather passed. Vonnegut's words helped me grapple with the loss through the perspective of aliens. I have revisited the book several more times since and I've gained more wisdom with each reading. So it goes.

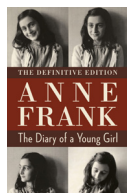

— Madeleine Kissling, patron services supervisor, Carrico/Fort Thomas Branch

The Importance of Being Earnest* by Oscar Wilde

Before I read this book as a teenager, I held the absurd notion that "old" books couldn't be anything other than boring. Imagine my surprise when I laughed out loud reading about the antics of these characters! This book broadened my literary horizons beyond young adult fiction.

— Natalie Shadrick, adult/teen services programmer, Carrico/Fort Thomas Branch

The Diary of Anne Frank* by Anne Frank

I have read and re-read this book. Although our situations are vastly different I have always felt a deep connection to her. I have always felt we could be friends. She was a little wicked, funny and so talented. Had she lived, one can only wonder what she could have accomplished.

— Toni Reinke, library page, Newport Branch

Professional Book Nerds

Calling all podcast listeners: Add Professional Book Nerds to your lineup! The three hosts—Joe Skelley, Emma Dwyer and Jill Grunenwald—work at OverDrive, the industry-leading app for ebooks and audiobooks through local libraries and schools. The company is also the mind behind Libby, a refreshed take on the classic OverDrive app. Tune in to PBN for weekly expert book recommendations, author interviews and to listen to fellow book nerds geek about the latest hot reads. Past interviews have included Kwame Alexander, Alan Cumming, James Dashner, Lee Child and Jodi Picoult. You can listen on Libby (or OverDrive), iTunes, Google Play, Stitcher, iHeartRadio, TuneIn, Radio FM, Spotify and more.

Drop Your Drawers, continued from the cover

After a record-breaking year in 2021, Drop Your Drawers returns to all of our branches this November and December.

The initiative aims to meet a crucial need for public schools, and the families they serve, in Campbell County: keeping Family Resource Centers' emergency supplies of clean socks and underwear stocked. Schools hand out 100 or more pairs monthly to children of all ages who need them due to accidents at school or circumstances at home.

This year, the goal is to raise 7,000 new pairs of socks and underwear. Donations of any size may be dropped off at all library branches and must be in their original packaging. Bras and t-shirts are also accepted.

Last year, our community smashed the initial goal of 7,000 to raise 15,169 pairs of new socks and underwear. Due to the large volume of donations, we sent a little over 2,000 items to those affected by the devastating tornadoes in western Kentucky in December 2021. Library staff were blown away by Campbell County's outpouring of support. Here's to another successful Drop Your Drawers campaign in 2022!

“Since its launch in 2015, Drop Your Drawers has become a mainstay in our community.”

JC Morgan, library director, said, “It addresses an important, but often overlooked, need:

all children should have access to clean underwear and socks that fit.”

Keeping such supplies stocked allows centers to redirect funding to provide other valuable resources. Guardians are also often unable to bring fresh underwear and socks to their children during school hours, which means they can miss valuable classroom time.

Year after year, our community has gone above and beyond for Drop Your Drawers. Having launched at CCPL, the campaign has now been held at library systems across the country.

For more information on the campaign, visit www.cc-pl.org/drop-your-drawers.

Stay in the know about the library when you sign up for our Connections newsletter to be delivered to your home or office every month.

The newsletter features library programs at each branch, services, announcements, patron stories and more. Don't miss out! Map out your month with the library by flipping through Connections. All you have to do is sign up at www.cc-pl.org/connections.

You can also pick up a newsletter at any of our branches. Want to go digital? Sign up online or in-person for our e-newsletter, which users can customize to fit their interests, favorite branch and frequency preferences.

YART

YART: The Yard Art Sale

Peruse works from dozens of local artists at this year's YART, the Newport Branch's annual Yard Art Sale. Everything for sale is $30 or less, making YART the perfect place to get a head start on holiday shopping.

Held 11 am - 4 pm Saturday, Nov. 12, art and craft vendors will be spread out on both floors of the Newport Branch. There's sure to be something for everyone on your list (including yourself!). Items range from ceramics to illustrations, photography, metalwork, paintings, jewelry, textiles and more.

The event takes place on the same Saturday as the Friends of the Library Book Sale, where you can stock up on gently used books for $3 or less. Some books are free.

Registration is not required. For more information, visit cc-pl.org/YART.

Signature Series: Sarah Kurchak

Hear from Sarah Kurchak, author of I Overcame my Autism and All I Got Was This Lousy Anxiety Disorder, at November's installment of Signature Series at the Carrico/Fort Thomas Branch. Held at 7 pm Friday, Nov. 4, Kurchak's memoir examines the steps she took to become "an autistic success story," how the process almost ruined her life and how she is now trying to recover. Stick around for a short reception and an opportunity to get autographs. The Carrico/Fort Thomas Branch will close early at 5 pm to prepare for the event. Free tickets are required.
