We Suggest

STAFF RECOMMENDATIONS: Our Favorite Manga Series

Blue Flag by KAITO

It's only eight volumes, so it is really quick but so, so cute! It's a slice-of-life series about the friendships and relationships of a group of high school students. It has a perfect balance of comedy and seriousness. If you're a fan of Heartstopper, definitely check this one out!

— Danielle Heiert, adult/teen services programmer, Cold Spring Branch

Vinland Saga by Makoto Yukimura

Vinland Saga follows a young Viking, Thorfinn, as he struggles with loss and the violent oppressive nature of the Viking age. It's a bloody mess of a series with quite a lot of violence, but the underlying messages of hope and perseverance leave some good throughout.

— Max Sulken, patron services assistant, Carrico/Fort Thomas Branch

Dragon Goes House Hunting by Kawo Tanuki

This series has so much humor and is a great mix of both fantasy and slice-of-life. Letty is an adorable dragon that has been kicked out of his family den and must find a lair of his own. A demon lord, who is also a realtor, takes on the challenge of showing Letty his options through many misadventures along the way.

— Morgan Lockard-Ellis, branch manager, Carrico/Fort Thomas Branch

Fullmetal Alchemist by Hiromu Arakawa

The characters are phenomenal, the plot crafting is exquisitely detailed, and the themes it deals with are eternal (including, but not limited to, racism, corrupt leaders, humanity, and community vs self-sufficiency). There is truly something for everyone in this series and I can't recommend it enough!

— Stephanie Daugherty, patron services assistant, Newport Branch

Sign Up for a Library Card!

Every September, the American Library Association celebrates Library Card Sign Up Month! This year's theme is "Get in Your Element!," a nod to Pixar's animated flick Elemental. Library cards give you access to more than just our collection! Borrow books, ebooks, get homework help, access research materials and more.

As back-to-school season settles in, remember: library cards are one of the best school supplies and they're completely free. To sign up, visit any branch with a valid photo ID and proof of your current address. Applications are also available in Spanish.

Keep an eye out for our giveaway! In honor of the Library Sign Up Month, we'll have a prize drawing for a CCPL swag bag at all branches.

You can also sign up for a digital patron card, which gives you instant access to ebooks, audiobooks and online resources. Visit cc-pl.org/library-card for more information on how to get started.

This September, We're Celebrating Kentucky, continued from the cover

September marks Kentucky Bourbon Heritage Month, making it the perfect time to celebrate all-things Bluegrass State.

First, raise a glass for the library's Bourbon & Books. Held on Friday, Sept. 8 at 7 pm at Fort Thomas' Mess Hall in Tower Park (801 Cochran Ave.), the program features a panel of bourbon experts from various Northern Kentucky distilleries. After the panel, those age 21 and over can sample bourbon. There will also be a chance to peruse books. And you'll get your own complimentary coaster! Make sure to register at cc-pl.org/bourbon-books.

Come back to the library a week later on Friday, Sept. 15 at 7 pm for fall's first installment in the library's Signature Series: Kentucky Poet Laureate Silas House. Held at the Carrico/Fort Thomas Branch, the New York Times bestselling author will discuss how he draws inspiration from Kentucky and the American South when writing his novels. The Carrico/Fort Thomas Branch will close early at 5 pm to set up for the event.

If you're interested but can't make it in the evening, head to the library at 2 pm for an afternoon sneak peek.

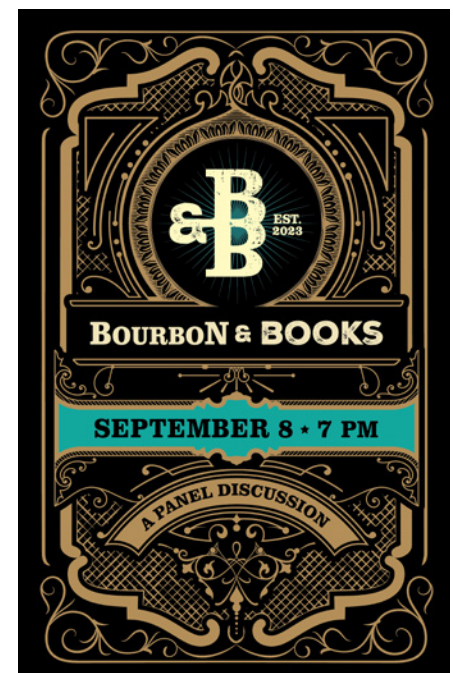

Among many other accolades, House received the 2022 Duggins Prize, the most significant award in America for LGBTQ writers. He was also named Appalachian of the Year in 2022, a title he received in a nationwide poll.

His most recent book, Lark Ascending, is set in the near future as a young man, Lark, attempts to flee the United States as fires spread across the country, both figuratively and literally. It's a story of survival, community, found family and healing despite harrowing circumstances. If you haven't read Lark Ascending yet, you can check it from our collection (along with House's other novels). Roebeling Point Books & Coffee will also be available to purchase books onsite.

His other novels include Clay's Quilt, A Parchment of Leaves, The Coal Tattoo, Eli

the Good, and Same Sun Here. The library is excited to welcome House, a beloved Kentuckian, writer, advocate and voice, to Campbell County.

Register for your free ticket at cc-pl.org/signature-series.

Virtual Author Talks

Tune into Virtual Author Talks from the comfort of your own home for free. With every month comes more exciting discussions. And September is no exception. Patrons can expect three talks this month:

• 7 pm Thursday, Sept. 7 - Lidia Bastianich is an Emmy award-winning public television host, a best-selling cookbook author and a restaurateur, with locations in New York, Boston, Chicago, Las Vegas and Kansas City. During the talk, she will talk about her memoir, My American Dream: A Life of Love, Family and Food.

• 2 pm Wednesday, Sept. 20 - Spend an afternoon with Adam Alter, bestselling author of Anatomy of a Breakthrough: How to Get Unstuck When it Matters Most.

• 8 pm Wednesday, Sept. 27 - Don't miss hearing from Amor Towles, the author of three bestselling novels: Rules of Civility, A Gentleman in Moscow and The Lincoln Highway.

The talks are brought to the CCPL via a partnership with the Library Speakers Consortium. Register at libraryc.org/ccpl/upcoming

Connect with Us!

Stay in the loop on library news by subscribing to our e-newsletter, which delivers straight to your email inbox every other Tuesday at 9 am. You can also set your preferences for when you'd like the news digest to be delivered. Plus, you can tailor the experience by choosing topics that fit your interests, whether you have a favorite branch, love a particular series or want information on early literacy.

The e-newsletter includes upcoming program dates, our latest blogs, book recommendations, announcements and more. Sign up by visiting cc-pl.org/connections. By signing up, you'll also receive occasional announcements about larger programs, series and relevant news.

New Databases Available!

The library now offers ArtistWorks and LawDepot, both of which are available through Libby, a free app that gives users access to digital materials.

If you've ever wanted to learn how to play an instrument, ArtistWorks is for you. The service offers instrumental and voice lessons from professionals (including Grammy-winning musicians). From bluegrass to blues to classical and jazz, you can find hundreds of hours of high-quality video instruction alongside play along tracks, sheet music and written materials.

LawDepot offers legal documents, forms and contracts for a variety of instances, including planning your estate, selling a vehicle, starting a business and more.

All you need to login to Libby is your library card number and PIN. Visit cc-pl.org/libby for more information about logging into LawDepot and ArtistWorks. You can also access Libby on your desktop browser by visiting libbyapp.com.
