We Suggest

STAFF RECOMMENDATIONS:

Favorite Spine-Chilling Dark Academic Reads

Harry Potter and the Half-Blood Prince by J.K. Rowling

It is arguably a portrayal of dark academia and is (unarguably) the best book in the series. The majority of the story takes place at Hogwarts, the school which the moody and brooding titular character Harry Potter attends. At this point in the series, Harry has come to terms with his fate (the secret prophecy) and everyone is preparing for the impending war.

— Andi Holt, outreach services assistant

A Deadly Education by Naomi Novik

A magic school where the only goal is to stay alive from monsters that are trying to eat you and evil students trying to kill you. The female lead is absurdly powerful with restrictions to magic and doesn't need others in her life, but in order to survive graduation she is going to have to form a team to make it out in one piece.

— Cody Elliott, adult/teen services programmer, Newport Branch

If We Were Villains by M. L. Rio

This book follows a group of Shakespeare students during their final year of college, during which a tragedy worthy of the Bard himself takes place, leaving one of the students in prison and another dead. I would highly recommend this to anyone who is or was a theater kid, anyone who loves Shakespeare, or anyone who just loves a good mystery! It's so spooky and dramatic, definitely one of my favorite reads of all time. It's also the pick for Cup of Crime this month. (See pg. 4.)

— Danielle Heiert, adult/teen Services Programmer, Cold Spring Branch

Piranesi by Susanna Clarke

This book follows a man living in endless halls of statues with the ocean flowing through them. The story is told through the man's journal entries, but the reader cannot be sure how reliable of a narrator he is. Just like the labyrinth he lives in, the book itself feels like a puzzle. It is eerie and increasingly intriguing as more of the world is revealed.

— Katherine Sallee, adult/teen services librarian, Carrico/Fort Thomas Branch

Curbside Trick or Treat

Jack-o-lanterns flicker; chill hangs in the air; leaves turn golden yellow, red and orange. Halloween season is here—and with it, the library's Curbside Trick or Treat. Pull up to the Newport, Carrico/Fort Thomas and Cold Spring branches from 6-7:30 pm on Saturday, Oct. 21 for all-treats, no-tricks fun.

Visit different stations to get candy and prizes. This program is for children, teens and adults of all ages. Halloween fun doesn't stop just because you grow up!

If you don't drive, it's okay to walk! Costumes are encouraged; our staff will be dressed as goblins, ghouls and everything in between. The Book Bus will be making a stop at a mystery location during Curbside Trick or Treat. Check social media on Saturday, Oct. 21 to find out where the Book Bus will be parked. Stop by for some Halloween fun and pick out your own free book to take home!

Registration is not required.

2022-23

ANNUAL REPORT TO THE COMMUNITY

BY JC MORGAN, DIRECTOR

Every year, the Campbell County Public Library publishes an annual report, a reflection of the past year's highlights. Since being founded in 1978, we have adapted and evolved to remain true to our mission statement—connecting you to big ideas wherever you are.

As a library system, we strive to create a safe, inclusive and accessible environment for all of our patrons. It has been a great year full of changes, fun programs and more. Here are a few of the highlights.

How You Used the Library at a Glance

Over 350,000 patrons visited the library this year; thanks for walking through our doors! Whether you came for our Wi-Fi, to browse our collection, attend a program or use a service, we're happy you stopped in.

In the past year alone, we offered 2,966 programs across our branches, with a total attendance of 79,477. That is a 27 percent increase in attendees compared to the previous year! We're proud of the array of programs we offer: craft making, informative speakers and book clubs. If you went head-to-head in a game night, we're glad you joined us!

Our community also utilized our public meeting rooms, which housed 3,842 meetings across 2,557 groups and a total 17,523 attendees.

And, of course, you checked out items from our collection. Our annual circulation total came in at 903,169 items—that's a 4.5 percent increase from last year.

Newport Got an Express Unit

Have you used the Westside Express yet? The new express unit was added in spring of 2023, joining two other locations in Silver Grove and Melbourne.

The Westside Express is located at the Northern Kentucky Scholar House (402 W 6th St, Newport, KY) and allows patrons to pick up and drop off requested materials.

All you have to do is request items on our website by selecting Westside Express under Pickup Library. You can also call any branch to get set. Once you're notified that your hold is ready, head to the unit and follow the on-screen prompts to get your material.

Along with the Westside Express, the Melbourne and Silver Grove Express received updates. All units now include touch screens and touchless scanners.

Alexandria Expanded Their Hours

A new express unit wasn't the only thing that saw changes this spring. The Alexandria Branch also expanded its hours! The branch is now open seven days a week. We are proud to be able to allow greater access to the branch and all the services it provides, along with access to its collection.

The expanded hours now mean the Alexandria Branch is open from 11 am - 7 pm from Monday to Friday, 11 am - 5 pm on Saturday and 1-5 pm on Sunday.

Book Bus on Tour

The Book Bus hit the roads of Campbell County this summer for its first-ever tour! We loved seeing everyone this summer have fun at local parks and pick out a free book to keep from the bus.

Programs included making DIY Shrinky Dinks at the City Center Park in Wilder; learning all about ladybugs at the Alexandria Community Park; and visiting with the animals of Good Green Earth Farm at Gil Lynn Park in Dayton, KY. Nearly 2,500 visited the Book Bus this summer. The year's total attendance as of August 2023 was 3,604—and 2,429 books have been handed out.

You can catch the Book Bus rolling to events year-round! While the bus primarily stocks books for children, there is also a selection onboard for teens and adults.

More Outreach Services

From visits to schools to Home Delivery Services and more, our outreach department serves Campbell County residents outside of the library's walls. One service outreach provides is developmental screenings for children ages one month to five years. Screenings can help identify a child's strengths as well as any areas they may need support.

There's also Dolly Parton's Imagination Library, which mails a free, age-appropriate book to enrolled children ages newborn-five every month. We are proud to continue to offer Imagination Library in partnership with local schools!

For adults, outreach provides Home Delivery Service, in which homebound residents can request items be delivered directly to their door. Those who cannot visit the branches due to temporary or permanent illness/disability are eligible. Outreach staff also visit senior centers, adult day care facilities and retirement homes.

Friends of the Library

As the fiscal year ends, we'd like to thank the Friends of the Campbell County Public Library, a non-profit, equal-opportunity organization that provides generous financial support for a number of library programs.

Funds generated through membership fees and book sales help pay for building amenities, annual staff scholarships, staff appreciation events and other services. The Friends also serve as library advocates. Interested in joining their ranks? Visit cc-pl.org/friends for more information.

LOOKING AHEAD

Drop Your Drawers

The library's annual Drop Your Drawers campaign will return this November and December. The campaign aims to meet a crucial need facing public schools in Campbell County: keeping emergency pairs of socks and underwear stocked.

The library will collect new packages of socks and underwear in their original packaging of any size with a goal of raising 7,000 items. Donations can be dropped off at any branch.

ADA Compliance Statement

The library makes every reasonable effort to provide equal access to all patrons. Please contact access@cc-pl.org or call ext. 8 at your local branch at least 72 hours prior to an event to arrange for accommodation. All facilities and meeting rooms are ADA compliant.
